A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Theology that supports Christian social action with a study of papal and other Church documents, from 1891 to the present, related to social justice. An analysis of specific issues of poverty in Canada and the global community. A consideration of the basic principles contained in Catholic social doctrine. Strategies for relating Catholic social teachings to the mission of the Church at the parish and local level.

B. GOALS:
1. To examine the meaning, content, methodologies and practical implications of Christian Social Teaching.
2. To focus our exploration principally on Catholic Social Teaching while also considering other faith based and secular approaches.
3. To give particular attention to the social, historical and methodological factors related to the development of these teachings.
4. To become aware of some of the social problems of our time and our milieu, to reflect on them in the light of the Church’s teaching, to discuss these issues and to discover possible avenues of hope-filled, just action.

Knowledge
1. To know the history of the Catholic Church’s social justice tradition.
2. To study and have a familiarity with the principal magisterial documents of the Church’s social teachings on the papal and universal level, on the regional and national level, and on the provincial and diocesan level.
3. To have a critical knowledge of the significant methodological changes and the underlying constants in the development of the social teaching of the Catholic church.
4. To have a knowledge of the theories and methods needed to develop strategies for relating Christian Social Teaching to the social mission of the Church at the parish and local level.
5. To be able to understand and articulate specific social issues and problems that influence society and the Church today on the local, national and international level in order to be able to formulate possible Christian Catholic responses.
Skills
1. To be able to understand and interpret the historical development of the Church’s Christian Social teaching in the broader ecclesial and secular historical context.
2. To be able read and analyze the Church’s Social documents.
3. To be able to understand and apply appropriately Christian and theological social principles in concrete social analysis.
4. To develop the practical skill of working with others in applying different methods of social analysis: for example ASee, Judge, Act.
5. To develop the oral and writing skills needed to articulate clearly and faithfully the Christian Social Teaching and its practical application to specific issues and problems.

Values
1. To appreciate the importance of the Church’s Social Teaching as an integral and constitutive part of the total doctrine of the Catholic Church.
2. To develop a sense of solidarity with, and love for, the poor by making a preferential option for the poor and oppressed rooted in our faith in Jesus Christ.
3. To appreciate the need for justice and peace in our global and local world, and the urgency for those in the Church to work for these values with all people of good will.
4. To value the connection between spirituality and social justice in forming agents for social change with the heart and mind of Jesus Christ.

Methodology:
The course includes reading, lectures, discussion, student presentations and papers.

Assignments:
1. Read and study the required texts.
2. Read and be conversant with the supplementary material indicated in the class lectures, for example: articles, videos, interviews, etc.
3. Enter into class discussions.
4. Complete the required papers, seminars and tests.

H. WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS: REQUIREMENTS

1. Policies regarding Submission of Assignments and Tests
   a. It is the responsibility of the student to organize his or her work so that the assignments can be completed on time.
   b. Assignments are to be handed in at the class on the due date. Assignments may not be dropped off at King’s or submitted electronically.
   c. For a serious reason, a student may be granted an extension. On the form provided, the student is to write a brief explanation of the reason for the extension. This is to be signed by the teacher, with the extended date noted. A copy of the extension notice is given to the Dean.
   d. Any medical reasons will be confirmed by proper documentation as approved by the Dean’s Office.
   e. A penalty of 10% of the value of the assignment will be deducted for each day it is overdue without permission.
   f. No electronic devices will be allowed during tests or the examination, unless approved in advance by Student Services at the University or King’s. (This refers to students with disabilities who have permission to use a word processor to write their exams/tests.)
   g. Students who miss tests will negotiate a make-up date with the professor. Any medical reasons will be confirmed by proper documentation as approved by the Dean’s Office.

2. Internet References
   If references are given from internet sites the exact designation of the site must be given along with a hard copy of the page from which the quote is taken or to which the reference is made.

3. MLA Style
   The MLA Style (Modern Language Association) is to be used in writing your papers: in the Bibliography/Works Cited and in the quotations in the text.

4. University Regulations and Support Services
   Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf
All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com - http://www.turnitin.com.

Students are responsible for knowing the University’s academic policies and regulations and any particularities of their own course of study. Ignorance of these policies is not an excuse for any violation thereof. The following policies are particularly important to note:

Submission of Assignments: It is the responsibility of the student to organize his or her work so that the assignments are completed on time. A penalty of 10% of the value of the assignment will be deducted for each day it is overdue without permission.

Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt by quotation marks and/or footnotes. Plagiarism is a major academic offense. Students may be required to submit their work in electronic form for plagiarism checking.

Selection and Registration of Courses: Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded, that all prerequisite course(s) have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any anti-requisite course(s) that they have taken.

Support Services
Students who are in emotional/mental health distress should refer to Mental Health@Western: http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

University Students Council provides many valuable support services for students (including the health insurance plan) http://westernusc.ca/services/.

Information about Counselling and Student Development, including Services for Students with Disabilities at King’s is available at http://www.kings.uwo.ca/about-kings/who-we-are/administrative-departments/dean-of-students/

For emotional/mental health assistance see specifically: http://www.kings.uwo.ca/currentstudents/campus-services/student-support-services/personal-counselling/

The web site for Academic Services at King’s University College is http://www.kings.uwo.ca/currentstudents/academic-support/
These services are not meant to replace those offered at St. Peter’s Seminary, but may be beneficial to our students after consultation with the appropriate instructors, administrators, and formators.
