Welcome to kim sutton | positive productivity. My friend, just because you can do everything, doesn’t mean you should. It took me the first four years of my entrepreneurial journey to figure this out. After 20+ years of Kim Sutton traveling around the country working with thousands of teachers, we realized Kim is not getting to all of the states we would like, to effectively share her amazing material and ability to teach math content in a fun and exciting way. To achieve this goal, we have trained a select number of teachers to be available in those states we don't reach as often as we'd like. These teachers use and feel
