Nearby words of 'in the fullness of time'. What does the fullness of time mean? Long before Jesus' birth God was preparing the way. The two genealogies of Jesus recorded in the gospels make us travel back in time either to the beginning of the human race in Adam (Luke 3:23–37) or to the beginnings of Israel in Abraham and David (Matt. 1:1–17). God was preparing the way centuries before the birth of His Son in Bethlehem. How did God prepare the way? Here the fullness of time is determined by the unfulfilled promises God had given to Old Testament Israel, promises filled with hope for future blessing and peace. God had even set a time for the fulfillment of these promises (Hab. 2:3), although He had not revealed that time to anyone, not even to the prophets (1 Peter 1:10–12).
