MacGregor Mathers, born as Samuel Liddell in January, 1854. He is one of the most influential figures in modern Occultism and is primarily known as one of the founders of the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn. He died in November, 1918. The idea that cards were first invented to amuse Charles VI of France is now exploded; and it is worthy of note in this connection that their supposititious inventor was Jacques Gringonneur, an Astrologer and Qabalist. Furthermore, cards were known prior to this period among the Indians and the Chinese. Etteilla, indeed, gives in one of his tracts on the Tarot a representation of the mystical arrangement of these cards in the Temple of Ptah at Memphis, and he further says: Upon a table or altar, at the height of the breast of the Egyptian Magus (or Hierophant), were on one side a book or assemblage of cards or plates of gold (the Tarot), and on the other a vase, etc. This idea is further dilated upon by P. Christian (the...
Aeromancy is fortune-telling using the weather. Aeromancy can be practiced using thunder, lightning, rain, wind, whichever you choose. It is highly personal and requires no special equipment. Technically, Numerology is when you assign spiritual significance to numbers and Arithmancy is when you analyze those numbers. However, when people talk about number divination, they usually refer to it as Numerology. The Assyrians, Babylonians and Greek systems are known as Gematria or Isopsephy. Of all methods and forms of fortune-telling, Astrology is the most famous and probably the most widely practiced. Astrology dates to at least 2000BC (most likely earlier). The Mayans, Indians, and Chinese all have had their systems of Astrology.
