The Dyslexic Adult in a non-dyslexic world

Ellen Morgan
Dyslexia Support Service, University of North London and Cynthia Klein
London Language and Literacy Unit, South Bank University

Consultant in Dyslexia
Professor Margaret Snowling, University of York
Contents

Foreword vii
Acknowledgments viii
Introduction ix

Part I: Starting Points 1

Chapter 1 3
The dyslexic cognitive style

Chapter 2 21
Diagnosis, definitions and being ‘dyslexic’

Part II: Living in the Non-dyslexic World 47

Chapter 3 49
Formative influences, self-esteem and patterns of behaviour

Chapter 4 75
Dyslexia in the family

Chapter 5 94
Choosing a job or career

Chapter 6 117
Experiences and creative solutions in the workplace
Index

academic success, value of 12 acceptance of differences 22 access to higher education courses 133 Access to Work Scheme 106, 107 achievement, assessing 139–42
ACID profile, of Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children 33 action, towards goals 22, 22–3, 41 actors and actresses, dyslexic 94 adolescents, with reading difficulties 30 amanuenses 140, 152
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) 1990 106, 117 employees’ rights 119 analysis, v. synthesis 4, 204–5 arithmetic, see mental arithmetic art and design 10, 201
students 141
assessment, see diagnosis; examinations; tests basic skills education 131, 132 tutors’ understanding of dyslexia 166 behaviour, influence of dyslexia on 49, 51–2, 58–60, 61–3, 84–5 brain structure and function anatomical changes, multilevel effects 5 cerebellar involvement 30 communication between hemispheres 5 cortical malformation 5 plasticity 203–4
right v. left hemisphere 4–5, 16, 94 symmetrical v. asymmetrical 5–6 taxi drivers’ hippocampi 98 British Psychological Society (BPS), dyslexia definition 32 careers
application forms, see job application forms changes in the workplace 202–3 choice of 94–100
engineering 200–1
‘goodness of fit’ 128–30
guidance 100–3
holistic thinking 124–6
motivation 103–4
professional careers 107–16
reading/writing element 101, 102, 113–14 right v. left hemisphere functioning 94, 200–1 school v. work performance 102
social work 112–16
teaching 108–12
turning weaknesses into strengths 126–8 variety of 94
see also employment
case study, intergenerational 78–90 case study, longitudinal 180–94 background 180–3
school memories 181–3
self-esteem 182, 192
The Dyslexic Adult in a Non-dyslexic World

early indications of dyslexia 182 after leaving school 183–4 literacy classes 184–7
learning style 187–8
visual strategies 187–8, 189
further and higher education 188–90
self-correction 189
beyond degree level 190–2 impact of dyslexia 192–4 in retrospect 192–4 catering 95, 96–7, 99, 100 cerebellum 30
cognitive profile 13–18 cognitive style 3, 5
implications of 18–20
colour coding 73–4, 162–3, 187–8, 189 compensating for difficulties 23, 27–8 compensatory strategies 9 competence, at work 120–2 composition problems 146 computer-based examination assessment 140
computers 145–156, 202
visual-graphic aspect of 156 see also technology; technology in education control, internal, with learning disabilities 22 coping strategies 71–2, 77 repetition of information 128, 143–4 tactile and kinaesthetic strategies 137 in teachers 111, 126–7
in the workplace 122–8
courses, see education creativity 9, 203
learned creativity 124–6
culture
cultural expectations 56–7 and diagnosis 25
working-class culture 55
decoding strategies, in reading 18
definitions
cultural bias? 25
of dyslexia 3–4, 29, 32, 192 influence on diagnosis 29–34 see also terminology
diagnosis
accessibility to 34–5
age, significance of 50–2, 62, 81 approaches to 23
of children 24, 88–9
criteria 37
difficulties in assessing adults 23–5 discrepancies 37
effects of 40–44
feedback session 40
and gender 26
history of difficulties 37 holistic approach 35
ideal result of 39
influence of definitions on 29–34 interview 28, 38–9
issues in 23–8
learning style 38
methodology 24–5, 35–6
model for adults 34–9
opportunities after 23
pattern of difficulties 37
pattern of errors 37
purpose of 21, 24
reading, spelling and writing analyses 39 report 40, 43–4
resentment at not being diagnosed earlier 42–4 as a starting point 40–4 tests, problems with 25, 35–6 who assesses? 34
dictaphones 152, 169
difficulties, pattern of 13, 37 direction, sense of 16, 66
map reading 69
Disability Discrimination Act 1995 106, 117
Disability Employment Advisers (DEAs) 106, 107 need for training in dyslexia 107 Disability Service Teams 106
disclosure of disability 117–20
by teachers 119
discrimination
negative 119
positive 120
DragonDictate Classic (computer software) 154 driving tests 66
  theory test 99, 140
dyslexia
  deficit or difference? 4–8
  definitions 3–4, 29, 32, 192
  as a difference 3–4, 4–8 expectations of non-dyslexic world 20 explaining to others 44–5 ‘feel’ of ix, 13, 28, 34 gift of 4, 6, 8–12
  gifts or compensatory strategies? 9 a hidden disability 122 incidence 133–4
  indications of 13, 38, 182 severity of 49
  terminology, UK v. US xi see also case study; diagnosis; everyday life

dyslexia gene 75
Dyspel Project 41, 60, 73

education
  access to higher education courses 133
  assessing achievement 139–42 basic skills, see basic skills education changes in the system 197–202 emphasis on written skills 132 entry qualifications 133, 134–5 funding in further education 133, 134–5 group assignments 136, 142–5 inclusiveness in 135, 197–8
  independent learning 136 learning support model 167–9 new approaches 135–6
  post-16 framework 131, 134–5, 135 return to 132–5
  technology in, see technology in education visual images and models 199 vocational courses 132, 141 widening access to higher education 133, 137–8 work-based 200
  worked-based assessment of theory 141–2 see also case study; examinations;
  learning; learning styles; teaching;
  teaching styles
employee rights 105–7, 119
employers’ requirements, examination system mismatch 200 employment competence 120–2
  coping strategies 122–8
  disclosure of disability 117–20
  dyslexia as barrier to job performance 118
  employee rights 105–7, 119
  experiences in the workplace 117–30 Employment Service 106
engineering courses, pass rates and retention 201 English as additional language 25, 39 error analysis marking 173 errors, pattern of, in diagnosis 37 ethnicity 54–7
everyday life, impact of dyslexia on 63–5, 68–74 case example 65–8 examinations 140–1
  accommodations for dyslexic students 140 computer-based assessment 140 coursework-based assessment 140–1 dictation of answers 140 mismatch with employers’ requirements 200 multiple choice tests 140
  see also tests
families
  difficulty in accepting diagnosis 56–7 family functioning 91–3 impact of dyslexia on 76–8
  inheritance factors 75–6
  intergenerational case study 78–90
  stress factors for 49
Fast ForWord, sound processing programme 204 feedback 128
  in diagnosis 40
  from subject tutors 178 filtering, noise/visual 19 formative influences 49–63 frustration 61–2
at school 61, 158, 181–2 funding, specialist diagnosis and support in further education 133, 134–5 gender, and diagnosis 26 genetic causality 75–6
genetic links 203
‘goodness of fit’ 128–30
grammar checking software 148

groups
  group assignments 136, 142–5
  support groups 175–7

handwriting 16, 165

hippocampus 98
holistic thinking 124–6

humour 72, 123

imagery 174
incidence of dyslexia 133–4 inclusiveness, in education 135, 197–8
independent learning 136
inheritance factors 75–6 Inspiration (computer planning software) 150 instruction, interest-driven 18 intelligence quotient, see IQ tests intergenerational case study 78–90
interview, diagnostic 28, 38–9 interviewees xiii–xvi
IQ tests 26–7
isolation 53–4

job application forms 104–5, 190 disability questions 119
disclosure of disability 117–20
jobs, see careers and employment kernelling 173–4

Keystone (screen reader program) 148–9, 154

labels 50
language 67
  conventions 16, 19
difficulties with auditory and visual processing 13–14

English as additional language 25, 39
literature interpretation 19, 70 oral 19
semantic coding 13
visual/semantic strategies 13 lawyers/solicitors 102, 121–2

learned creativity 124–6
learning
  being taken out of classroom 200, 201–2 kinaesthetic 160, 169–70
  lifelong learning 131
  multi-sensory 160, 169–70 online 202
  overlearning, need for 151, 177
  remedial help 157–60
  rote 14
  student–tutor relationship 167, 168–9 visual 169–70
see also education learning disabilities, a difference in style? 11 learning skills, context-bound 17–18, 18 learning styles 138, 165–6, 199 assessment and 141
  in case study 187–8
  conflict with teaching styles 137 as indication of dyslexia 13, 38 learning-style questionnaire 161 learning styles approach v. deficit model 161 role of meaning 14–15, 17 students’ comments 166
  and teaching styles 11, 16, 160–6
lifelong learning 131
lighting, effect on reading 170–1 literacy 33
  context-bound 17–18
  literacy classes 159, 184–7 literacy skills, effect of delayed development in 50 loneliness, at school 52–4 long-term memory 14

map reading 69
maternal responses 92
mature students 133, 134
Meares-Irlen Syndrome 149, 171 memory 31
  long-term 14
  need for information to be meaningful 14-15
  short-term 14, 15, 66, 114
  visual memory 6, 14
mental arithmetic 67, 70, 71 mind-mapping 150, 174, 187-8 mnemonics 161-2, 163
modelling 172
models, visual, use in education 199 Moser, working group report 33, 132
motivation 103-4
multi-sensory learning 136-7, 160, 169-70

National Working Party on Dyslexia in Higher Education 111-12 neglect of school authorities 43 noise, filtering 19
note-taking 138
number difficulties 70

occupational psychologists 107 offenders 58-61
  high proportion of dyslexic offenders 58 oral language 19
organizing, problems of 32
overlearning, need for 151, 177

parents
  involvement in support 90
  maternal responses 92
  problems in parenting 68
  stress 92
pattern of difficulties 13
  in diagnosis 37
pattern of errors, in diagnosis 37 patterns 17
peer group responses 52-4 perisistence 92-3
phoneme awareness 27-8
phonics 158-9, 163
phonological processing difficulties 15, 29-30, 31

planning
  computer software for 150 problems of 32
PQ4R scaffolding strategy 174
practitioner research x-xi prison population 58, 60 high proportion of dyslexic
  offenders 58
problem-solving 9, 203
  unconventional approaches to 197
professional careers 107-16
  see also careers
proof-reading 124, 138
psychologists, occupational 107 punctuation 16-17, 172, 173, 174 ‘quick forgetters’ 14

race 54-7
reading 18, 19-20
  decoding strategies 18
  reading analysis 39
  reading difficulties 69
  Reading Pens 150, 202
  reading problems 71, 138 reading tests 25
  recognition of difficulties 22 referral bias 26
  reframing process 21-2
    stages in 22
  remedial help 157-60
research
  ethnographic approach x-xi into dyslexic strengths 8 lack of 24, 33, 54
  practitioner research x-xi
  resentment, at late diagnosis 42-4 rhyme, poor awareness of 33-4 scaffolding 171-4

  definition 171
  voice recognition technology as 153-4 school experiences of 88-9
  frustration at 61, 158, 181-2 loneliness at 52-4
  negligence of school authorities 43
school v. work performance 102
Scotopic Sensitivity Syndrome (SSS) 149, 171
screen readers 148–50
self-correction 173, 189
self-esteem 57, 82–3, 182, 192
and age of diagnosis 50–2, 62 influence of dyslexia on 49, 50, 51, 74
semantic coding 13
sequencing difficulties 16, 18, 138, 146 severity, of dyslexia 49 shopping, getting change 71 short-term memory 14, 15, 66, 114 siblings 75
sibling relationships 80, 90–1 social class 54–7
social life 67, 70
social skills 79, 82–3
social work, as a career 112–16 appropriate support from supervisors 114–16 software, see computers; technology in education; voice recognition technology; word-processing solicitors/lawyers 102, 121–2 spatial rotation tests 11 specialist tutors, importance of 167 speech/voice synthesis technology 16–17, 19–20, 149 spellchecker software 147–8, 152–3, 155, 155–6 spelling 32
as means to reading 163–5 phonetic approaches to 161 rules, difficulty with 15, 16 strategies for 161–5, 188
teaching methods 159–60, 161, 167 spelling analysis 39
spelling tests 25
spidergrams/spider maps 166 strengths 6
focusing on 160
gift of dyslexia 4, 6, 8–12 research into 8
turning weaknesses into 126–8
stress

exacerbating dyslexic difficulties 63–65
parents' 92
visual stress 30
stress factors, for families 49 stubbornness 87, 92–3
students
dyslexic v. non-dyslexic 136
group assignments 136, 142–5
mature students 133, 134
student–tutor relationship 167, 168–9
study skills software 151
subject tutors 177–9
supervision, in social work 114–16 support 57–63, 77
from employers and colleagues 124, 130 for learning 166–9
parental involvement 90 support strategies 169–75
support groups 175–7
support tutors 171, 172–5, 188–90
editing v. teaching 175 synthesis 7
v. analysis 4, 204–5
teaching
learning-styles model 160
see also teaching as a career; teaching styles; tutors teaching as a career 108–12 arguments against 110
arguments for 109–10
coping strategies 111, 126–7
disclosure of disability 119
suitability for 110–11
teaching styles
conflict with learning styles 137 teaching to learning styles 11, 16, 160–6 teamwork 127, 203
technology and dyslexia 203–4
in the workplace 202–3
technology in education 145–56
computers 145–6, 156, 202
planning software 150
screen readers 148–50
study skills software 151
usefulness of 155–6
word processing 147–8

see also voice recognition technology
terminology, UK v. US xi
‘test, teach, test’ paradigm 27, 38
tests culture-dependent 25
in diagnosis, problems with use of 25, 35–6 IQ tests 26–7
lack of 36
results in terms of ages 36 “test, teach, test’ paradigm 27, 38

see also examinations Texthelp (screen reader program) 148–9, 150

thesaurus software 155–6

thinking
holistic thinking 124–6
verbal thinking 9–10
visual thinking 7–8, 9–10, 12, 162, 163–5, 204

three-dimensional mind 6, 10 three-dimensional rotation 11 time management 16, 69, 72–3, 138–9 writing under timed conditions 139 Tomlinson report 135, 198

transcription skills 146 tutors
basic skills tutors, understanding of dyslexia 166 specialist 167
student–tutor relationship 167, 168–9
subject tutors 174, 177–9
support tutors 171, 172–5, 188–90

understanding strengths and weaknesses 22

verbal thinking 9–10
visual distraction, filtering 19

visual images, in education 199 visual learning 169–70
visual memory 6, 14
visual-motor processing difficulties 16, 30, 31 visual-spatial skills 6, 9, 11
visual strategies 187–8, 189
visual stress 30
visual thinking 7–8, 9–10, 12, 162, 163–5, 204 ‘visuo-spatial scratch pad’ 14
vocational courses 141
voice recognition technology (VRT) 16–17, 19–20, 151–5, 156, 202 voice/speech synthesis technology 16–17, 19–20, 149

weaknesses
turning into strengths 126–8 Wechsler Intelligence Scale for Children (WISC), ACID proflle 33
word processing 147–8
grammar checking 148
spellchecking 147–8, 152–3, 155, 155–6 thesaurus 155–6
word retrieval 15

Wordswork (software package) 151 work-based education 200
working-class culture 55
working memory, see short-term memory workplace

changes in 202–3
experiences in 117–30
school v. work performance 102
writing
peer editing 176
sense of audience 176
written expression 32
written language conventions 16
see also handwriting

writing analysis 39
writing frames 173
Adult Dyslexia and ADHD: Effects in the Workplace. Dyslexic employees are some of the smartest, most imaginative and highly motivated people in your workgroup -- and your company's management. Employers can easily adapt the workplace to help dyslexic people work more efficiently. Test for Dyslexia: 37 Common Traits. Most dyslexics will exhibit about 10 of the following traits and behaviors. Take the Dyslexia Screening Test.  This test in only a simple dyslexia checklist for adults. Comprehensive dyslexia testing by a qualified professional is the best way to make a formal determination. For a more detailed online test, check out our partner NEUROLEARNING that has recently released a confidential iPad-based test for ages 7 and up. That app actually tests a child or adult's skills, identifies strengths and weaknesses, and provides a detailed report based on that performance. Learn more about adult dyslexia, including adult dyslexia tests and treatment options. Adults with dyslexia have had it their entire lives, but it may not have been diagnosed. Having dyslexia as an adult can present some challenges that children with the same condition don't experience. There are three main types of dyslexia. Most people have all three types, usually at differing levels.